PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Following our recent AGM I would like to welcome the newly elected Committee. I am pleased to have a few familiar faces join us this year. We have a strong & experienced committee & I look forward to working with everyone over the coming year.

The AGM gave us an opportunity to reflect on what has been a busy year for the Club, with considerable work undertaken across our facilities, administration, governance & general operations. I believe we have laid some good foundations & our focus now needs to be building on those improvements.

One of the key priorities for the new Committee will be the Club's financial performance. As acknowledged at the AGM, the Club traded at a loss in the last financial year, & improving our financial sustainability must remain a strong focus. This will include continuing to look closely at operating costs, staffing, bar & kitchen performance & opportunities to increase revenue, while still ensuring we provide a welcoming & affordable Club for our members & community.

There is always plenty happening around the Club, & I would again like to acknowledge the continued efforts of our staff, volunteers, the Bowling Club & Golf Club. The support & cooperation among everyone involved remains important for keeping the GCC sustainable & moving forward.

With the AGM now behind us, I am looking forward to the new Committee getting down to work. We have plenty to do, but we have a good group around the table & will endeavour to strengthen & grow the Club over the year ahead.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

THE LATEST NEWS — AND THINGS ARE GETTING SAUSAGEY!

Well, that came around quickly! Is it just me, or does time seem to speed up the older we get? Before we know it, we'll be putting up Christmas decorations again & I'm not emotionally ready for that yet!

My best memory since our last newsletter has to be Bogan Bingo. It certainly brought out everyone's inner bogan, & it was brilliant to see you all embracing it with such enthusiasm. Some of you really didn't need much encouragement!

Being Scottish, I have to admit I learned quite a bit about Aussie culture that night, including a few new words that I'm not sure I should repeat in polite company!

Unfortunately, I wasn't able to take as many photos as I would have liked, thanks to my rather inconvenient broken leg & the fact that hobbling around isn't particularly conducive to photography! I did, however, manage to grab a couple of video clips, which you can check out on our Facebook page.

October is shaping up to be very busy indeed, because we're getting ready to celebrate OKTOBERFEST!

We'll have Weihenstephaner joining us to help dress the venue & get us looking suitably German. 🇩🇪

We'll also have our special: 🍺 BUY THE STEIN — KEEP THE STEIN! 🍺 That's right, enjoy your beer & take the stein home with you afterwards. A souvenir you can actually drink from. Of course, there will be a fancy-dress evening, so start digging through those wardrobes now. Lederhosen? ✅ Dirndl? ✅ Funny German hat? Absolutely! ✅
Something you bought at the last-minute costume shop? We'll allow it! 😂

AND NOW FOR THE IMPORTANT STUFF. We're planning a few very serious & highly scientific competitions. First up: 🌭 "HOW BIG IS MY SAUSAGE?" 🌭

Yes, you read that correctly. We'll have a specially made bratwurst sausage, & your challenge will be to guess its:
📏 Length
⚖️ Weight
🌭 Girth

Whoever comes closest takes the glory!

If that isn't enough sausage-related excitement for one month, I'm also planning a SAUSAGE-TOSSING COMPETITION on another weekend. 🌭💨

I'm currently waiting for the butcher to confirm the dates, because apparently even sausages have schedules!

As soon as I have everything locked in, I'll let you know. So, in the meantime, get your German outfits sorted, practise your best German accent, loosen up those dancing hips & start preparing yourselves for an Oktoberfest to remember!

There'll be beer, dancing, competitions, laughs, sausages, & probably a few stories that are best forgotten by Monday morning.

Prost, everyone! 🇩🇪🍺🌭 And remember . . . what happens at Oktoberfest stays at Oktoberfest, unless someone posts it on Facebook or in the next edition of the newsletter!

NEXT UP... THE BUSY BEE!
Also coming up, I'll be catching up with the committee at our next meeting to lock in a date for our next Busy Bee.

We've got a list of jobs that could use a little love, & I've already started putting together a "who can do what" list.

There's a bit of everything on it, from sprucing up the building & giving things a good tidy to a few handyperson jobs that need someone with the right skills (or at least a healthy level of confidence!)

So, if you have a special skill, hidden talent, trade experience or just enjoy getting stuck into a job, please let us know.

You might be a painter, carpenter, electrician, gardener, fixer-of-things-that-shouldn't-be-broke, or simply someone who knows which end of a hammer to hold! Every helping hand makes a difference, & the more of us who pitch in, the quicker we'll get through the list & the sooner we can put the tools down and enjoy a well-earned cuppa, or something a little stronger!

More details & the date to come, so watch this space!

A LITTLE PERSONAL NEWS...
After giving it a lot of thought, I've made the decision to step down as Venue Manager. I've genuinely loved my time in the role &, most importantly, I've loved meeting & getting to know so many of you. You've made the job incredibly rewarding, & I'm so grateful for all the laughs, conversations, events & memories along the way.

However, there's something I've been putting off for far too long: my Reformer & Mat Pilates training courses! I had planned to get started back in February, & somehow the months have disappeared while I've been busy keeping things running here. So, I think it's finally time I gave them the attention they deserve.

But don't panic, you're not getting rid of me that easily! 😂

I'll still be around the club, so you'll definitely see me — just from the other side of the bar.

Most of all, I want to say a massive thank you to all of you.

You guys really are the best. ❤️

It's genuinely amazing to see what a wonderful, welcoming & heartfelt community we have here at the club. I've been incredibly lucky to be part of it, & I'm looking forward to continuing to be part of it — just in a slightly different capacity.

So this isn't really a goodbye. It's more of a "see you around the club!" 🍻 And knowing you lot, I'm sure I won't be able to stay out of trouble for too long! 😂❤️

With gratitude and blessings to you all.

Lynne Conway

The Great GCC Grump Hunt

You may remember our last staff challenge, when everyone said "sorry" so often that the place turned into an impromptu YMCA performance.

Well, we're back with a new one: the Grump Hunt.

During the school holidays, any staff member caught being negative or grumpy gets a sticker. That's it. No lecture, no paperwork, just a tiny, sticky reminder that the rest of us heard you mutter at the coffee machine.

The aim is to keep the mood up during one of our busiest stretches. So, if you spot a staff member covered in stickers, please be kind.

What's On at the Club

Your official warning that staying home is overrated.

THE GCC CALENDAR IS LOOKING DANGEROUSLY FUN 🎉

Don't miss out — we've got plenty happening, with more still to come.
Lock these dates in and keep an eye on our socials for updates.

  Pool Competition – Rack 'em up! Join us for our weekly Pool Competition. All skill levels welcome – great fun, a bit of friendly rivalry, and of course, bragging rights! Names in early at the bar.

  1 Oct

  Start of Oktoberfest – Prost! We're kicking off Oktoberfest in style, with great drinks, good company and plenty of Bavarian fun. Expect themed happenings each week throughout the month – from "How Big Is My Sausage," to our "Best Dressed" contest and more. Stay tuned!

  31 Dec

  New Year's Eve Barn Dance – See out the year with boots, beats and a dance floor full of end-of-year energy.
  Great music, good company and a brilliant way to welcome a new year – not to be missed!

Keep an eye on the Club socials for bookings, updates and announcements — and stay tuned, our Christmas events are still being arranged.

WEEKLY EVENTS

Lost in Translation: Kitchen Edition

Working in hospitality means you occasionally receive an order that makes you stop, stare at the docket & ask a few questions. Over time, we have collected some absolute classics thanks to creative spelling, autocorrect, misheard menu items & perhaps the occasional moment of pure inspiration. A few favourites include:

- A Gluten Free Burger becoming "Clue Ten Free"
- Our duck special being enthusiastically renamed "Duck Off"
- Rocky Road becoming the slightly less adventurous "Bumpy Street"
- And the undisputed champion: an order for Shepherd's Pie arriving in the kitchen as "Chef Pete's Pie"

These little moments are part of what makes working behind the scenes at the GCC so much fun. Keep the dockets coming . . . you never know when your order might earn a place in newsletter history.

Chef Clare's Tip of the Month: Pimp Your Butter

Most of us know garlic & herb butter, but flavoured butter can go so much further. In the kitchen, we call these compound butters, & they're one of the easiest ways to turn something simple into something seriously delicious. They can be savoury, sweet, spicy or somewhere dangerously good in between.
One of my favourites is Brown Sugar & Ginger Compound Butter.
It works beautifully tossed through a simple pasta dish with bacon, used in baking, melted over roasted vegetables or sweet potato, spooned over pancakes, or simply spread over warm toast.
And the best part? It's ridiculously easy.

Brown Sugar & Ginger Compound Butter
Ingredients

- 250g unsalted butter, cut into cubes
- 50g brown sugar — add a little more if you like things sweeter
- 1 tablespoon minced ginger
- Pinch of salt

Method

- Gently soften the butter in the microwave or in a saucepan. You don't want it completely melted, just soft enough to stir into a smooth, creamy mixture.
- Add the brown sugar, ginger and salt, then whisk until well combined.
- Transfer to a container and refrigerate until set.

Then comes the important part: put it on everything. Try it on warm pancakes, morning toast, biscuits, roasted vegetables or sweet potato, or melt a little through your next pasta dish. Simple ingredients. Minimal effort. Maximum kitchen smugness.

Until next time — happy cooking!

CHEF CLARE

A big welcome to the newest members of the Guilderton Country Club.

Every member brings something different to the mix, whether it be a new story, a familiar face-in-the-making, a future teammate or possibly someone who takes the pool table far too seriously.

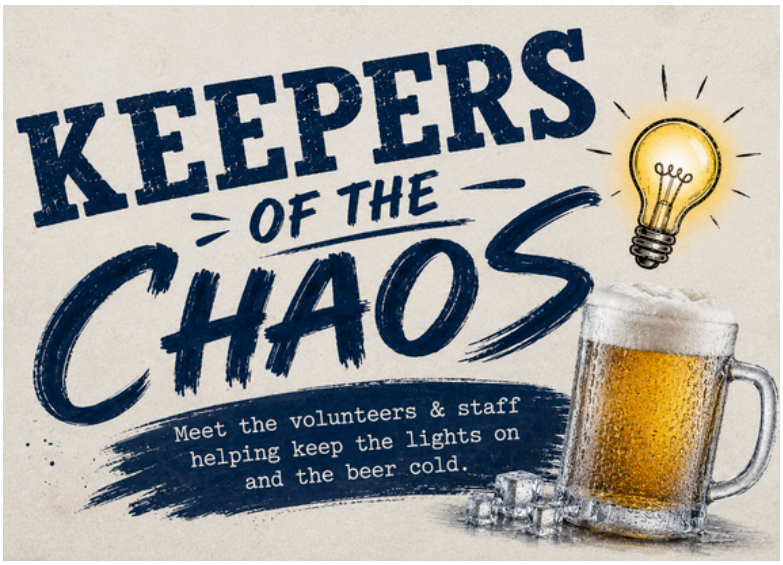

Whether you've joined for the sport, the meals, the events, the social side or simply because someone finally convinced you, we're glad you're here.

Don't be shy! Say hello, get involved and make yourself at home. Before long, you'll know who sits where, who tells the longest stories and which events are absolutely not to be missed.

Welcome to the Club. We hope you settle in quickly and enjoy everything GCC has to offer.

Ron Atyeo, Vice President

INTRODUCING . . . . RON ATYEO

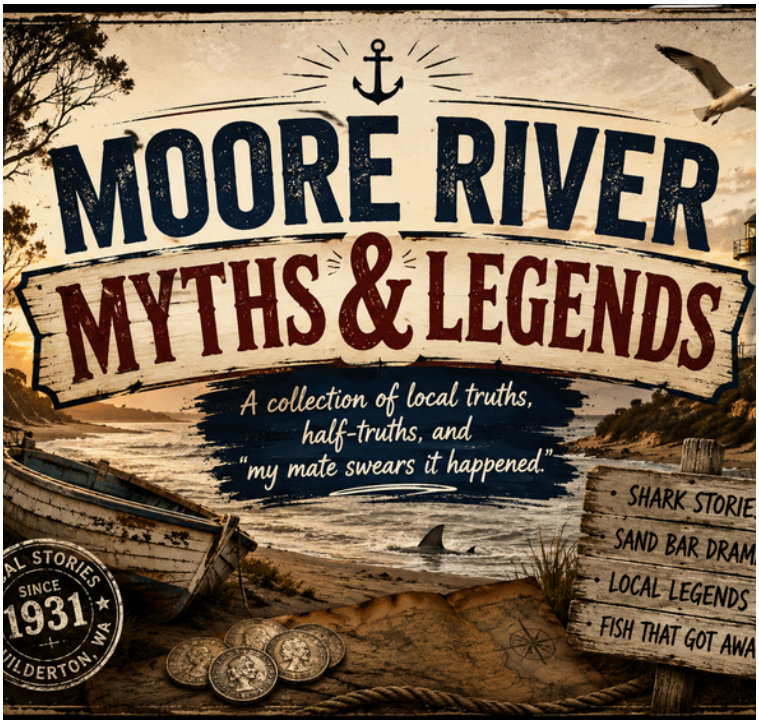

What job do you do around the Club that nobody notices until it doesn't get done? Can't say that I have one particular job, but I'll always try to contribute when things are needed.

What's the funniest, strangest or most chaotic thing you've witnessed at the Club? There's been a few, for example, crows nicking golf balls from #2 fairway, Cookie's bingo outfits and the power has going out mid pool comp.

Which Club member would you want beside you in a crisis, and which one would probably have caused it? We have many very capable people around the club, and a fair few mischievous ones too! I won't be naming names here!

If you were handed the keys to the Club and an unlimited budget for one night, what would you organise? I'd like more live music in the Club, so a live gig or open mic session would be great.

Complete this sentence: "You know you've spent too much time at the Guilderton Country Club when…" the bar staff say you're here more than Justin 😂

At the place where 40 guilder coins were found from a ship that was wrecked in 1656, stands the red brick lighthouse. Long before it was built, locals told of a strange light that sometimes appeared above the ocean on dark, windless nights.

Unlike the steady beam of a lighthouse, this light was said to drift slowly across the water before stopping suddenly, as though someone were holding a lantern & searching the shoreline.

Some believed it belonged to a sailor from one of the many ships wrecked along the coast, forever trying to guide his missing crewmates safely back to land. Others claimed it marked the place where cargo had been carried ashore and buried beneath the dunes.

The story became particularly popular among campers, who warned children never to follow the light if it appeared along the beach. Those who walked towards it would supposedly find that it remained exactly the same distance away, no matter how far they travelled.

Then, without warning, it would disappear. What do you think?? Myth, mistaken light or a sailor still searching for home?

The Guilderton Country Club is more than just a venue. It's where our community comes together. From live music nights & family events to sport, celebrations, fundraisers & weekend catch-ups, the Club plays a big role in keeping the Guilderton community connected. None of that happens without the support of local businesses & community-minded sponsors.

We are currently welcoming new sponsors for 2026/2027. Sponsorship with the Club is a fantastic opportunity to:

- Promote your business to locals and visitors
- Increase visibility through our newsletters, social media and events
- Support a valued community organisation
- Build genuine local connections
- Show your business is invested in the Guilderton community

We offer a range of sponsorship levels including Platinum, Gold, Silver, Bronze & Club Sponsorship packages, with options to suit businesses of all sizes.

Whether you're a small local business, a growing company, or simply someone passionate about supporting the community, we would love to work with you.

Our sponsors are an important part of the Club's future & we are proud to showcase & support the businesses that support us.

Get your business seen, support your community, & become part of something great at the Guilderton Country Club.

Because good communities don't build themselves. They're built by legends who say "yeah alright, I'll help."

If you are interested in supporting the Club by becoming a sponsor contact secretary@guildertoncc.com.au.

GOLF CLUB NEWS

Club Championships Preview

Our Club Championships will be held on the weekend of Saturday 3rd and Sunday 4th October. The Match Committee are trialing a new format this year: 36 holes over the two days, for both the ladies and men, with the winners over the combined two rounds taking the titles for 2026.

LADIES CHAMPIONSHIP ; WHO IS GUILDERTON'S ANSWER TO MINJEE LEE

Will Lynn Malone go back to back, or will our lowest lady handicapper, Jenny Schaeffer, take it off? Can the consistent Irene Street wear everyone down? Will the rapidly improving Kerry Jones or the steady performers of Linda Johnson and Anne Gault blow everyone away? Lots of questions to be answered - time will tell!

EDITORS TIP: Jenny, Lynn and Irene to go to an extra playoff hole!!!!

MENS CHAMPIONSHIP: WHO'S THE TOP DOG?!

In the Men's Championship, Phil Flavell is also aiming for back to back, having won the title on many occasions. Andrew McKean is in good form and is playing very good golf and will be looking to emulate his 2024 success. Craig Hanlon is a big improver and his consistency has been superb for months but, there's a host of men qualifiers ready to pounce. Justin McDiarmid has also had a great year and would be a good roughie at longer odds! And of course, our club nomad, Abe Wright, may just be here and come under the radar - he has been "working" up north, but I think the golf clubs accompany him everywhere he goes, so beware!!

And don't rule out the experienced Kevin Malone who has been putting in the hard yards at Exmouth along with some other qualifiers in Bob Johnson, Ron Jones and Mick Giles who are all capable of big games.

Both the Ladies and Men's Championships promise to be keenly fought and showcase excellent golf.

Stay tuned! EDITORS TIP:

1.Phil and Andrew to go to a playoff OR

*2.Craig to get the job done, but, not ruling out Justin or the Noma*d!

AGM

Sunday 18th October 10am at the Country Club. While many of our hard working committee have indicated they are probably prepared to continue in their roles (if that's what members want). It is always vital to have an eye to the future and change. So all members are encouraged to consider joining the committee in whatever capacity they can. If nothing else, good attendance at the AGM helps support the committee and is a good place to hear about, discuss and contribute to our journey forward. We'd appreciate a good attendance.

Following the AGM will be the Presentation Luncheon where all awards for the winter season will be acknowledged and celebrated.

All members would have received an email (dated 1st September) with regards to the AGM along with the Summer Fixtures.

CWCGA / CWCLGA CHAMPIONSHIPS

In recent weeks we had five men make the trip to Badgingarra for the Central West Coast Golf Association Championships.

Emmie Wright was our sole lady member to make the trip for the CWCLGA Championships.

The best of our men was Craig Hanlon with a 73 net, giving him third place on the podium. Well done, Craig. Everyone else enjoyed the golf and the bus ride!!

ALL ROUND BENEFITS OF HIGH PRUNING

As we reported in the last GCC Newsletter, we have been working on some high pruning around the course. Removing large dead and overhanging branches makes the course much safer for everyone while aiding the health of the trees.

We are delighted that our high pruning was appreciated by the local wildlife.

Thanks to Petrina for this lovely photo from out on the course of a local galah using this high, hollowed out, recently pruned branch for nesting, sheltering and/or playing.

GETTING LOUD AT GOLF

Just for a bit of fun, a few weeks ago Mick Giles suggested that we wear "loud" golf attire to mix it up a bit!!

Well LOUD it certainly was!

The day was won by Captain Phil Flavell with a magnificent 42 points, a great score on his low handicap! Our Vice Captain, Jenny Schaeffer, was the runner-up on 32 points.

And the LOUDEST dressed prize went to Kerry Jones and Phil Flavell. Some members cruelly commented that Phil was just wearing his normal gear!!!! That's harsh!!

Everyone enjoyed the day.

SPRING IS IN THE AIR

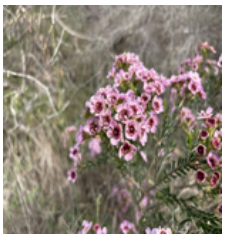

With some late winter rains and a lot of hours from our committee and volunteers, the course is looking splendid.

The flora is in full colour and the birds (and bees) are very active, especially the beautiful blue wrens.

It's a great place for golf, footgolf or simply a walk.

GOLF CLUB COMMUNICATION

Our website is well managed and has anything golf in Guilderton including our recently reviewed & updated Strategic Plan. It's always a good starting point for golf club information:

The Guilderton Facebook page keeps everyone up to date with weekly Saturday competition and Wednesday scroungers results and photos.

Our GGC email is checked regularly so is always a good method of communication: guildertongolfclub@gmail.com

BOWLING CLUB NEWS

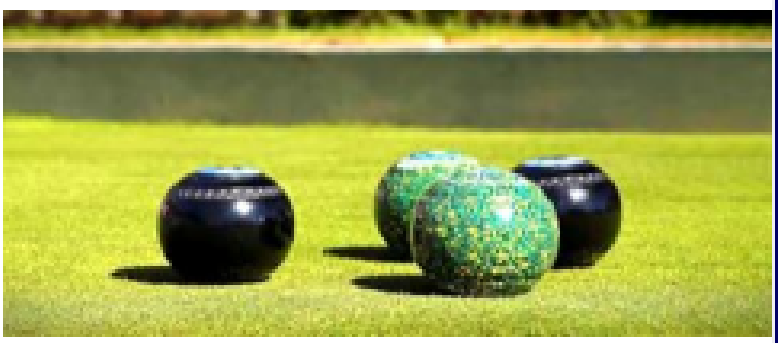

Guilderton Bowling Club welcomes all Pennant, Community and Casual Bowlers to the 2026/27 season.

Competition Pennants is played on Saturday afternoons against Gingin Black, Gingin Red, Gingin Gold, Ledge Point, Lancelin and Bindoon. Community Bowls is played over 6 weeks from the end of the Xmas school holidays in February -March.

Teams of 4 on a Thursday evening with each bowler playing 2 bowls for ten ends. This is a great competition with drink and food available from the Country Club and the Greenside bar.

Play outside of these days and hours is available to anyone with green fees of $7.50 paid at the Country Club, via the Q Code Application down on the Green or paid as cash into the cash box down on the green. Sets of Bowls are available as part of the fees.

Need more information. Contact the Club Secretary Sam Smeeton on 0407149640 or email the Club at guildertonbc@outlook.com

With the River opening and closing and reports of a "quick-sand like" experience the other weekend, we thought it was worth pushing out a swimming reminder.

SWIMMING IN THE MOORE RIVER

The Moore River Estuary is beautiful, but it's a natural waterway and conditions are very different to pools or the beach.

Whilst the edges seem very shallow and safe, it can get deep very quickly. A good indication of this is when the water darkens.

Not only can the water level change quickly, the sand movement can create quicksand style conditions.

Before getting in:

- Check the water, weather conditions and Shire of Gingin signage.
- Don't swim after heavy rain — WA Health recommends avoiding rivers and estuaries for 3 days after >10 mm rainfall ..
- Never swim alone. Swim with a buddy
- Keep children within arm's reach.
- Walk in slowly — never dive or jump ..
- Be particularly careful if the river mouth is open or there is moving water. This can create dangerous swimming conditions both in the river and ocean.
- Don't swim if the water looks murky, discoloured or smells unusual.
- Avoid swallowing river water.
- Never mix alcohol and swimming.
- Don't use rope swings or jump from trees or riverbanks.
- River water is not as buoyant as the ocean.

In an emergency phone 000, and look for the green BEN sign which will assist emergency services in locating where you are.

We hope that guests and locals enjoy their time in Guilderton and stay safe while you are in and around the Moore River and Indian Ocean.
